

Reflection template

Respond to the following questions to help you reflect on learning that took place during the group civil discussion about the Uluru Statement from the Heart.

What are some advantages of people discussing different opinions about the Uluru Statement?

What are some disadvantages of people discussing different opinions about the Uluru Statement?

What did you say or do that helped to keep the group civil discussion respectful?

What is a learning target to help your future involvement in respectful civil discussions?

When considering what the Uluru Statement means to all Australians since the referendum, were there topics where people seemed to have a lot of agreement?

When considering what the Uluru Statement means to all Australians since the referendum, were there topics where people seemed to have a lot of disagreement?

Reflection template

Australia consists of people from diverse belief systems. This results in different values and opinions. These different opinions need to be taken into consideration, along with democratic processes to try to find solutions to issues. The Voice to Parliament is a complex issue and the 2023 the Voice Referendum showed a big divide of opinions from the people who voted.

Reflect on different opinions that people may have about the Uluru Statement from the Heart, listing these below:

Consider ideas for how to develop a sense of belonging for all Australians, since the divided results of the 2023 referendum:

